

IN PADUCAH they refer to this $75,000 municipal baseball park as "The House that Polk Brooks built." When a funds campaign to erect the park fell short of the goal, J. Polk Brooks, bus-line operator, put up the money and worked as a laborer on the project. The park, home of the Paducah Chiefs of the Class D Mississippi-Ohio Valley league, is considered one of the most modern in the lower minor leagues.
