

Young Rookie Given Tryout—

J. Polk Brooks (left), president of the Paducah, Ky., club of the Mississippi-Ohio Valley league, announced that Paducah was rebuilding with young talent this season, so Michael N. Jones, 2½ years old, takes him at his word and reports for training.

Paducah decides to give Jones a trial. He stands on mound waiting for catcher's signal.

After appropriate wind-up, new Paducah mound find lets go with one of his best pitches.

Michael crowds plate when at bat; in fact, stands on it. Verdict: "More seasoning."
